HOT MEETING HELD ON JULY 22

Fellow Rotarian, Bridgeton Breakfast Club member, Albert Kelly, Mayor of Bridgeton talked about his first year in office and the challenges and positive opportunities facing the city, its residents and the surrounding areas at the joint Rotary and Chamber lunch meeting held on a 100 degree day at the Bridgeton Community Outdoor Farmers Market on the Riverfront in Bridgeton. Thanks to the City for its tent and to Denise Higbee and Rick Brown of Beavers Tree Service for the big fans that helped make it feel a bit cooler. He stressed the need to cooperate and work together across municipal borders for the betterment of the entire area, including Bridgeton. He also talked about the new "Get Bridgeton Moving" campaign for walking and better health, challenging Chamber members, Rotary members and everyone to register, participate and have a friendly competition to log in miles and lose pounds. Bridgeton Lunch Rotary is a sponsor of "Get Bridgeton Moving".

Pres. Elect Steve Linn

Brent Hankins and Lona of H.H. Hankins & Bro. will not be able to do the Club Bulletin due to the fire at their business. Brent asked Tony Stanzione to fill in for a bit. Keep the Hankins family and employees in your thoughts as they recover from this disaster. Thank God no one was injured. Thanks Brent and Lona for all you have done for Rotary. Send bulletin news to info@bridgetonrotary.com for now.
